

WAC 388-101D-0500 Community protection—Client home location.

(1) When assisting a client in selecting a home, the provider must conduct and document site checks of the proposed residence at different days and times of the week.

(2) After selecting a home, and before the client moves into the home, the provider must document and provide to DDA:

(a) The address of the home;

(b) The reasons the home is appropriate considering the client's specific risk factors;

(c) Restrictive procedures and security precautions the provider will implement; and

(d) Approval from the provider's administrator.
