- WAC 388-835-0020 What is a "change in ownership"? (1) A "change in ownership" is a change in the individual or legal organization responsible for the daily operation of an ICF/ID facility.
- (2) Types of events causing a change in ownership include but are not limited to:
- (a) Changing the form of legal organization of the owner, such as a sole proprietorship becomes a partnership or corporation;
- (b) Transferring the title to the ICF/ID enterprise from the provider to another party;
- (c) Leasing the ICF/ID facility to another party or an existing lease is terminated;
- (d) When the provider is a partnership, any event that dissolves the partnership;
  - (e) When the provider is a corporation and the corporation:
  - (i) Is dissolved;
  - (ii) Merges with another corporation which is the survivor; or
- (iii) Consolidates with one or more other corporations to form a new corporation.
  - (3) Ownership does not change when:
- (a) The provider contracts with another party to manage the facility and act as the provider's agent subject to the provider's general approval of daily operating decisions; or
- (b) When the provider is a corporation, some or all of its corporate stock is transferred.
