- WAC 388-835-0160 Can residential habilitation center (RHC) superintendents involuntarily detain residents? (1) When an RHC resident decides to initiate a voluntarily discharge, the superintendent must determine if the discharge is harmful to the resident.
- (2) If the superintendent concludes that the discharge is harmful, they may detain the resident for up to forty-eight hours until the harm passes. The superintendent may also refer the resident to a mental health professional as defined in RCW 71.05.150.
- (3) At the end of the forty-eight hour detention period, the superintendent must release the resident.
- (4) If, within six months, the superintendent detains the resident a second time, they must refer the resident to a mental health professional within eight hours of the second detention. During this second detention, the resident may only be held until the mental health professional:
- (a) Investigates and evaluates the specific facts surrounding the situation; and
- (b) Determines if further detention is necessary (see RCW 71.05.150).
- (5) Nothing in this section prevents a superintendent or their designee from allowing a resident to leave the RHC for specified periods necessary for their habilitation or care.
