- WAC 480-30-016 Determination of authority. (1) In some instances, a person desiring to transport passengers may be subject to regulation as an auto transportation company under the provisions of chapter 81.68 RCW, a charter and excursion carrier under the provisions of chapter 81.70 RCW, or both chapters, depending on the nature of the services offered and provided.
- (2) When determining whether operations require an auto transportation or charter and excursion certificate the commission will consider factors including, but not limited to:
 - (a) What is the nature of the proposed transportation service?
- (b) What is the origin and destination of the proposed transportation?
 - (c) Who will provide the service?
 - (d) Who will pay for the service?
- (e) How will the rates be assessed? (Time of use, mileage or distance, passenger fares, flat fee, other.)
 - (f) How will the service be provided?
 - (g) Will the service be offered to the public?
- (h) Will a passenger or group of passengers have exclusive use of the vehicle or will there be shared rides or mixed use?
- (i) What type and size vehicle(s) will be used to provide the service?
 - (j) Who will own the vehicle(s)?
- (k) Who will be responsible for the operation and control of the vehicle(s)?
- (3) Any person may submit to the commission a detailed written description of a proposed service to transport passengers and request an informal staff determination of the authority required to provide the described service.
